

Current NB Trauma Level Designations

All New Brunswick hospitals with an emergency department are currently designated as trauma centres, meaning they have important but differing roles to play in the care of seriously injured patients. New Brunswick's trauma centres are designated by the province using the most recent Trauma Association of Canada definitions. These definitions range from Level V (emergency stabilization) to Level I and II (most complex care).

Horizon Health Network | Vitalité Health Network | Ambulance NB | New Brunswick Department of Health